The Rinky Dinky Day School will be closed today on account of Slim the bartender is snowed-in up at his shack on Bumpass, errrr..... that's Bum Pass. The school's new head mistress Miss Lush Apple, said she did not want the school to open without the full staff present. (Miss Apple is the cousin of the late Smiley Lash, former husband of Silverton businesswoman Madam Lash. You may recall Mr. Lash died in the saddle a few years back. He was on a cattle drive up north. Madam Lash arranged for her employee, Miss Apple to assume the head mistress position after the former head mistress ran off with Miss Apple's fiancée, Nat Tubrite. So Bob's your uncle.

Mrs. Ima Hogg, the school custodian was somewhat miffed that classes were cancelled today because she had already got up early and shovelled the snow off the playground. The Weather Bureau says skies will clear tonight so the school should be able to re-open tomorrow. The rotary plows have opened up the Silverton line so Slim should be able to get to work.
